Good afternoon David,

I refer to our telephone conversation on Tuesday 2 October 2018 regarding the Crown Cemetery and Crematoria development applications at Wallacia and Varroville.

As you are aware, on 7 June 2018, the Independent Planning Commission received from the Minister:

1. the two Cemetery and Crematoria development applications, at Wallacia and Varroville; and
2. a copy of the Minister's delegation dated 4 June 2018, which under section 2.4 of the EP&A Act delegated his functions to the Commission to assess this application. This would mean that the Commission would be responsible for the finalisation of the application assessment prior to the Commission directing the Sydney Western City Planning Panel, who are the consent authority, to determine the application.

All the relevant correspondence is available on the Commission's website at the following link:

On 1 August 2018, the Commission wrote to the Department of Planning and Environment (the Department) to undertake the remaining assessment of the applications, including the Wallacia application. The Department's role will be to review the respective Councils' assessment report and supporting documents and advise the Commission if all relevant steps and matters for consideration have been give due consideration under the relevant provisions of the EP&A Act and Regulations. The applications are still under assessment by the Department.

At the completion of the Department's assessment, the Commission will undertake public consultation on the application. The Commission notes that the format of this consultation has yet to be determined. Should the Commission decide to conduct a public meeting, which is at its discretion, it will provide notice of the meeting and information regarding how the public can participate.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards,
Matthew
