Dear Philippa Vale

I am unfortunately unable to attend. My submission as local resident is as following. Please omit my personal details when publishing my comments.

1. Energy for Waste is a misleading and deceptive title for the project. It is a waste incinerator.
2. Tens of thousands of people live right next to the proposed incinerator site.
3. These incinerators are known to discharge very serious carcinogens (dioxins etc.)
4. Such facilities are being phased out in Europe.
5. The proponents of the project have been fined a number of times for not following the waste management rules (please see Blacktown Council submission).
6. The residents in this area have been experience severe stench from existing waste facilities for a number of years. EPA has not been able to resolve that. That indicates poor enforcement abilities of the EPA.
7. The area has severe air pollution load already from numerous industrial estates with their diesel trucks and from motorways' traffic
8. The area has poor air drainage/flushing characteristics. The polluted air tends to hang on the area and is not easily blown away.
9. Prospect reservoir (source of water supply for the whole of Sydney) is very close. Dioxins discharged from the facility will get added to that water. Current water treatment does not remove such chemicals.
