

Have Your Say

Using the Commissions have your say online form is the easiest way to make sure your comments are received.

Any person can make comments on a project referred to the Commission whether or not they were formally notified.

All comments must be in writing.

Statements or comments that could be considered defamatory should not be included in your comments. The Commission is not the author of comments and we do not check the accuracy of the content of any comments received. The views expressed in comments submitted through this site are not the views of the Commissions or the Secretariat employees. When statements are made in comments which are potentially defamatory, the Commission may decide to withhold publishing those parts of your comments on our website.

In accordance with our Privacy Statement all documents provided to the Commission are public documents and may be made publicly available unless you have clearly indicated that you do not wish your document to be made public.

Please select from the list below of our active projects available for comment. If the project you are interested in is not listed it means the Commission is not accepting written comments at this time.
