

New South Wales Government Independent Planning Commission

VARROVILLE: REQUEST FOR ADVICE ON PROPOSED LISTING ON STATE HERITAGE REGISTER

25 February 2019

On 12 October 2018, the Minister for Heritage, the Hon. Gabrielle Upton MP, requested the Independent Planning Commission review a recommendation made by the Heritage Council of NSW to list an extended curtilage for Varroville (SHR00737) and provide a report to the Minister.

The Commission has now completed its review and provided its report to the Minister.

As set out under section 36(2) of the Heritage Act 1977, the Minister will make the Commission's report publicly available after she decides whether or not to direct the listing.
