

Submission

Objection to Santos Narrabri Gas Project

The planned CSG project in the Narrabri region should not be approved. Waste management has not been adequately addressed by Santos in the SEARS.

Without adequate management of the waste there is an unacceptable risk to the groundwater. This could have a devastating effect on farming in the region and our food security.

I would request that the IPC consider the precautionary principle in the case of the Santos gas project.

Katherine Christie