Large scale cropping + grazing property employing 5 full-time employees including Father + Son owners.
How can we risk tampering with our water quality / supply?
If an organisation risked URBAN water quality / supply, they would be held criminally liable! Our water is our LIFE! We bathe in it, we clean with it, we sustain animals with it, we grow food + fibre with it !

We, as does anyone who eats our food or wears our fibre, SURVIVE with it, and create FOOD FOR LIFE!!

Surely there must be some common sense in this discussion!

No-one, sensibly or intentionally, commits to an action that could destroy a natural resource as important as water.

When little ones^{are} around me I use the Golden Book, The Little Red Hen, to guide and explain how we should live our lives.

Another childrens story, The Golden Goose, could be another tragic analogy for the Coal Seam Gas Industry.
