Hi Lindsey,

Re: attendees to the on-line Site Visit – there should be five of us.

I have seen the ArcGIS template and it is coming along well. We hope to have it fully completed tomorrow. My expectation is that EMM will give 'control' to the IPC and then you can check out what you want to look at. Am I right in thinking that you will digitally record this event and then that will be the record of the Site Visit?

On a completely different note, while I fully understand the reason for putting off the REAL site visit (postponement/deferral/cancelation?? My concern is, if there isn't a REAL site visit then that places Hume at a distinct and serious disadvantage, i.e if the Commissioners don't get to see the real Project. Further, if the Commission were to approve the Project there may be a procedural appeal by our opposition for not having conducted the REAL site visit.
Regards,

Rod Doyle
