Hi Phoebe,

That is correct.

As discussed you will also just need to make the minor amendment to the definition of 'Additional Disturbance Area' to remove the term 'approved' disturbance area.

Hi Joe,

I would just like to confirm our discussion regarding the 'approved disturbance area' referred to in the conditions for Mount Pleasant.

We have updated the definition of 'approved disturbance area' to include reference to the two "yellow areas" and the northern link road within the definition (as shown in Figure 1 of Appendix 2). Could you please confirm this is an accurate representation of the approved disturbance area?

Approved disturbance area

The areas identified as Project Continuation of Existing/Approved Su Development, Approximate Additional Disturbance of Project Extensions and of the Northern Link Road Options such-on Figure 1 in Appendix 2the Develop Layout
