

Submission re McPhillamy Mine- Strongly opposed

As I understand there are no implications for failure to meet noise, blasting and air quality limits. Every other approval by the DPE carries recommendations that ensure residents are protected in the event the proponent can't operate within their limitations.

As there are some hundreds of people living close to this proposed site I demand conditions be included in the event of an approval that enforces penalties for breaches.

Joy Mangelsdorf
Community member