

NEW DATES FOR THE MCPHILLAMYS GOLD PROJECT PUBLIC HEARING

Tuesday 20 December 2022

The Commission has allocated 6, 7 and 8 February 2023 as the new dates for the public hearing into the McPhillamys Gold Project, with registered speakers participating in-person at the Blayney Shire Community Centre (91 Adelaide Street, Blayney NSW 2799) or via online videoconference or telephone.

Speakers who were due to speak at the postponed public hearing in December 2022 will be provided the same position in the speaker order across the three days. The speaker schedule has now been published to the Commission's website, which can be accessed via this link. If you are not able to speak at your allocated time, please contact the Commission via submissions@ipcn.nsw.gov.au and indicate your preferred speaking time. The Commission will endeavour to schedule you to speak at your preferred time.

The Commission will also provide an opportunity to people not previously registered to speak to register for the new dates. Speaker registrations will open on the Commission's website on Monday 9 January 2023 and close at 5pm AEDT on Monday 30 January 2023. The Commission's website can be accessed via this link.

The public hearing will be broadcast live online via www.ipcn.nsw.gov.au/livestream.

The deadline for written submissions will also be extended to 5pm AEDT on 15 February 2023. Submissions can be made via the 'Have Your Say' portal on the website.
