Submission:

As we talk about a green transition how could we turn down projects that meet all the environmental requirements and call ourselves serious about it. I truly hope that NSW is a doer w this regard and not a talker.

As a side I was w Lue last year by chance. While sitting at the bar 3 locals told me they or family members of theres have put their name forward for jobs at the mine when/if it opens.

Silvers Mine's mine will be good for NSW and Lue financially and the environment as well.

Kind regards Shane
