They are created, nurtured and sustained by caring, connected and involved residents”

- Peter Kenyon, Bank of Ideas

There are only 300 permanent residents in Nundle. But boy, do they make the most of their beautiful home in the New England region of NSW. The historic mining village between the Peel River and Great Dividing Range was in its heyday during the gold rush, and you can still try your hand at fossicking today. And then there's the quirky festivals, fascinating history and stunning scenery. – Visit NSW

This existence
isn't about
learning to “accept” reality;
but rather –
remembering
your power to create it.
