This is an area of natural beauty, clean water and pure air. This plastics refinery would damage all of these qualities. It is just not the right location for this type of facility. Considering this is a Sydney water catchment area, we have platypuses in our rivers and increasing numbers of young families moving into the area, this is just not a good business to be located here. Australia has plenty of less hospital and less arable land to choose from. Keep this land for agriculture, tourism and people-use please.
