

Updated masterplan details

All items contained on this board are principles and ideas. The designs are at a proposed masterplan stage to inform and support the community consultation. They are not final masterplans or Development Application documents. The Development Application is subject to the statutory planning process. Illustrations are proposals only and subject to changes to satisfy statutory planning authorities, which will consider applications and provide any approvals.