

I own a farm which relies on bore water and Wells creek runs through this property so loss of water in the aquifers is a major issue as are coal dust particles since i rely on tank water for drinking