

Rylstone Olive Press + Bentivoglio Olives est 1997

Mission statement on the neck of every bottle –
At Rylstone Olive Press we produce Australia's finest extra virgin olive oils without harm to the environment and for the health and benefit of family friends and society

Olives are crop producing for > 300+ years for health giving extra virgin olive oil

Processing ROP over 22yrs

NSW Olive Processor of the year

Processing for growers from the Hunter, Southern, Western, Central NSW since 2001

Rylstone Olive Press – Sth Hemisphere Australian Champion and New York Olive Oil Show Champion

Champ West Aust, Sth Aust and Canberra shows over last 19 years, Gold and silver medal winners every year in Australia and Internationally London Show, Italy Show and Japan

Function Centre – Long Lunches raising money for community e.g Rylstone Hospital and during the drought

In our ROP Conference centre Supporting Olive growers with workshops in Assoc with Dept Primary Industry and University West Sydney since 1999

Promoting Rylstone Olive Press Extra Virgin Olive Oils Internationally and locally supporting our region

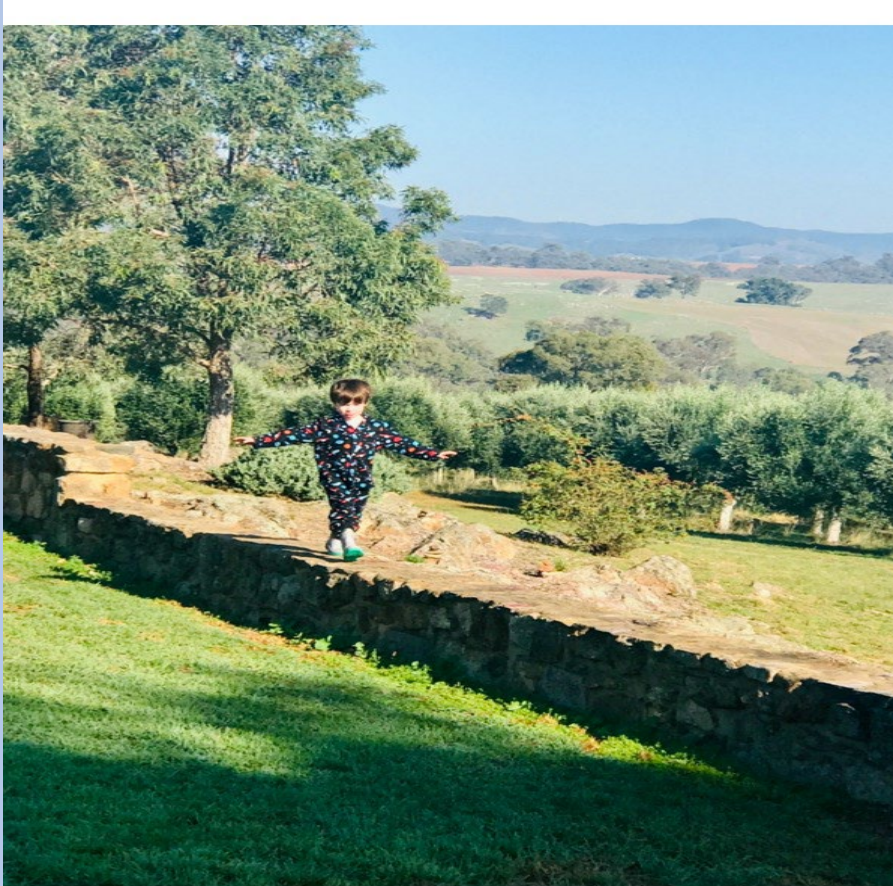

8000 olive trees - 26 years old – 5.3km from mine impaired photosynthesis with high risk of failure to thrive no fruit production lead/metal dust deposits allowable by DPE

Great Loss - Rite to peaceful life and enjoyment

Great Loss - Generational Legacy

62 ton toxic contaminated dust deposit allowed per year will fall on our home, grove, dam and the olive press

Our Family will suffer health problems, stress, and immediate financial hardship

We have a right to live in a clean environment and drink clean uncontaminated water in our home

