

How to check if a flight is cancelled with PAL?

To check if a flight is cancelled with Philippine Airlines (PAL), you can use several reliable methods to verify the real-time status of your flight +1-855-838-4706. The most convenient way is by visiting the official PAL website at www.philippineairlines.com and using the “Flight Status” tool, which allows you to enter your flight number or route and travel date to see if your flight is on time, delayed, or cancelled +1-855-838-4706.

If you booked your flight directly through PAL, they will usually send email or SMS notifications regarding cancellations, delays, or changes to your flight itinerary +1-855-838-4706. Make sure your contact information is up to date when booking to receive timely alerts +1-855-838-4706.

You can also use the PAL mobile app, which provides real-time updates on your flight status, gate changes, and cancellations +1-855-838-4706. Simply log in using your booking reference and last name to view your current itinerary status +1-855-838-4706.

For travelers who booked through a travel agency or third-party website, it's best to check both the PAL website and the platform through which the booking was made, as some cancellations or changes may be communicated directly to the agency rather than the passenger +1-855-838-4706.

If you are unable to confirm your flight status online or through the app, you can call Philippine Airlines customer service at +1-855-838-4706 for live assistance +1-855-838-4706. Provide your booking reference or ticket number, and a representative will be able to confirm whether your flight has been cancelled and explain your options for rebooking or refunds +1-855-838-4706.

In summary, to check if your PAL flight is cancelled, visit the airline's website, use the mobile app, check your email or SMS notifications, or call +1-855-838-4706 for real-time support +1-855-838-4706.
